Comórtas Póstaeir Gaeilge Poster Competition

Cuireadh comórtas póstaeir Gaeilge ar siúl do dhaltaí R3 go R6 leis an nGaeilge a chur chun cinn agus le meas don teanga a mhúscailt agus a threisiú i measc na ndaltaí. Iarraidh ar na daltaí teachtaireachtaí dearfacha faoin nGaeilge nó nathanna cainte deasa Gaeilge a chur i láthair i bhfoirm póstaeir. Bhí an-chaighdeán do deo le feiceáil san obair a rinne na páistí ar fad agus bhí sé fíor-dheacair buaiteoirí a roghnú as gach rang. É sin ráite roghnaíodh dhá phóstaer as gach rang agus bronnadh T-léine Gaeilge ar na daltaí sin mar dhuais. Tá na póstaeir ar fad ar crochadh thart faoin scoil agus na póstaeir is fearr crochta ar an mballa sa halla áit gur féidir leis na páistí ar fad sa scoil iad a fheiceáil. Is féidir na póstaeir ar fad a bhuiagh a fheiceáil ar shuíomh ghréasáin na scoil.

We held a poster competition for the pupils of R3 to R6 to promote the Irish language and to reinforce the children's pride in their native tongue. The pupils were asked to create posters with a positive message about the Irish language or to illustrate a nice Irish language phrase in poster form. The standard was very high and narrowing down the winners in each class was extremely difficult to do. That said, 2 posters from each class were chosen and the winners were presented with Irish language T-shirts. The posters can be seen around the school and the winning posters have been hung up in the hall for all the pupils to see. You can check out the winning posters on the

Maith Sibh a Thuismitheoirí Well Done Parents

Tá sé íontach tuismitheoirí a chloisteáil ag labhairt Gaeilge thart timpeall na scoile. Gan dabht mar go bhfuil cosc ar thuismitheoirí ar láthair na scoile is iad tuismitheoirí na naíonáin shóisearacha agus shinsearacha agus tuismitheoirí an naíonra a chloisim ag labhairt Gaeilge timpeall na scoile. Leanaigí leis an dea-chleachtas seo. Cuidíonn sé go mór linne agus muid ag iarraidh na daltaí a mhealladh leis an nGaeilge a labhairt mar mhódh cumarsáide nádúrtha eadartha féin lasmuigh den seomra ranga. Dóibh siúd atá ar bheagán Gaeilge nó nach bhfuil an oiread sin misnigh agaibh asaibh féin iarraim oraibh triail a bhaint aisti - tosaigh leis na beannachtaí ar nós 'Dia Duit', 'Conas atá tú?', 'Slán leat,' 'Bíodh lá deas agat' srl. agus tiocfaidh do chuid Gaeilge agus do chuid muiníne ar ais chugat gan mhoill.

It's great to hear parents speaking Irish around the school. Obviously as parents are asked not to enter school ground due to Covid-19 protocols, it is the parents of the junior and senior infants and the parents of the naíonra who can be heard speaking Irish around the school. Please continue with this good practice. It helps and supports us in our work as we encourage our pupils to speak Irish as a natural means of communicating with each other outside the classroom. For those who speak little or no Irish, I urge you to give it a try - start with the greetings such as' Dia Duit ',' Conas atá tú? ',' Slán leat, '' Bíodh lá deas agat' etc. and your Irish and your confidence to speak it will come back to you.

Bhí sé go hálainn ár gcuid iar-scoláirí a fheiceáil le chéile arís mar aon rang ghrúpa amháin mar go bhfuil siad scaipthe ar aon mheánscoil déag éagsúil. Bhíomar an -bhródúil as an tslí inar iompraigh siad iad féin le linn an tsearmanas agus an-áthas orainn gur éirigh leo an sacraimint a cheiliúradh le chéile ar deireadh, taréis don searmanas a bheith curtha ar athló cupla uair i rith na bliana de bharr na dianghlasála.
